SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

1. The recent meeting in Belgrade of the Yugoslav and Soviet leaders is a personal success for Tito and makes him the outstanding politician actively working for world peace. 25X1
2. Khrushchev's statement concerning Soviet tolerance of the Yugoslav brand of Communism means the Satellites may be able to adapt communism to their local needs, especially if a buffer zone of neutral nations, including Germany, is established. The Cominform may be dissolved but this would be in line with Soviet policy as was the dissolution in the past of the Comintern. 25X1
3. The internal Soviet situation is still difficult while the West is becoming stronger and so the Soviets are seeking any way to secure peace. The Soviets are afraid that a rearmed Germany and Japan may precipitate a war between the Soviets and the West for the purpose of revenge. 25X1
the Soviet war potential cannot equal that of the U.S. in the foreseeable future and the Soviets are attempting to buy time.
